Annual Feast of the Sheffield Cutler Company, England—Speech by Reverdy Johnston, American Minister—The Press and the Chinese Treaty with the United States—Potato Riot at Cork, Ireland.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The annual feast of Cuttlers, at Sheffield, occurred yesterday. Hon. Reverdy Johnson, American Minister, who was present as a guest, made his first address in England, in response to a toast to the health of the American Minister. Mr. Johnson, after expressing thanks for the high honor conferred upon him, said that he came to this country as a messenger of peace. He was glad to recognize everywhere in England strong proofs of friendship, and which he was certain were reciprocated in his native country. For no people under the sun had America kinder feelings than for her Majesty's subjects. They were really one people. They had like laws and like institutions, and in both countries freedom was the base of those laws and institutions. In their joint hands liberty would live forever.

Mr. Johnson reviewed briefly the causes and course and triumphant termination of the recent civil war. He continued: The war had ended slavery. None now but freedmen trod the soil of America, and history would say all was spent in erasing this blot, transmitted from a common ancestry, tarnishing our fame and belying the Declaration of Independence.

The speaker then alluded to the marshaling of the forces for the coming Presidential election in America, saying that however the canvass ended he could personally vouch for the next President as a warm friend of England.

Mr. Johnson alluded to the Sheffield Cutlery, which he said was known throughout the whole civilized world, and spoke favorably and encouragingly of the annual gathering of the Cutlers' Company. He was listened to throughout with the most marked attention and his assurances of peaceful and friendly relations between England and America were vociferously applauded.

LONDON, September 4.—The Pall Mall Gazette has an editorial on the subject of the Chinese treaty with the United States. The writer says: "The treaty looks as if the foreign merchants residing in China on the one side, and the Chinese nation with Mr. Burlingame on the other, were trying to neutralize each other's statements by demands that will not bear examination, but may serve to shake off the other side with a mistaken opinion. Here in England we are not to be taken by storm. A liberal interchange of opinion between the Embassy and the representatives of the English Government will demonstrate that a change in the position of Great Britain and China is demanded by the times, and will be benificial to both.

LONDON, September 4.—Dispatches have been received announcing that a very serious potato riot occurred yesterday at Cork. The people assembled in the streets in great numbers and for a time they were very boisterous. Troops were called out to quiet the disturbances and a charge was made on a body of about two hundred rioters, who were dispersed at the point of the bayonet.

The Bermuda Dry Dock, the largest structure for floating in the world, was successfully launched to-day.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 4.—The Coroner's inquest on the bodies of the victims of the Abergale railway disaster was concluded to-day, the jury bringing a verdict of manslaughter against Williams and Jones, the brakemen on the goods train, for criminal negligence.

PARIS, September 4.—It is announced today that Dufaure, an ex-Minister under Louis Phillippi, will be an opposition candidate for the Corps Legislatif.

ARKANSAS.

Instructions to Registration Officers—Gen. Forrest Claiming to be Misrepresented.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, September 4.—The Avalanche's Little Rock (Ark.) special to-day says Gov. Clayton of Arkansas has prepared instructions for his Registers for the registration now about to commence. He says among the powers the duties of each Register are the rejection of any one whom the Registers may not think entitled to register, even though the applicant has already taken the oath, to make arrests and call upon Sheriffs for a sufficient number of armed armed men to assist him, and if not furnished then call upon the commanding officer of any troops of the State Guard, which means the negro militia, who is directed to furnish promptly such aid. The applicant for registration is also required to prove his innocence, by evidence satisfactory to the Register, that he has not been guilty of a number of specified acts during a sum of years, one of which is that he did not sympathize with the rebellion. If he fails to establish this he cannot register, his oath to the contrary notwithstanding, unless he voted for the present Constitution. Another is to reject any one who has taken the franchise oath, if the Register is satisfied or thinks he ought not to be registered, and before being allowed to register he must subscribe to an oath setting forth that he accepted the civil and political equality of all men and agrees not to attempt to make any changes. Ten days before the election the boards of registration meet in each county, with power, upon their own knowledge or information, to strike from the list the names of voters they consider disqualified by the registration law. The Courts are forbidden to issue any mandamus or other process to registers.

General Forrest published a card this morning stating that in the reported conversation published in the Cincinnati Commercial he had been misrepresented. Mr. Woodward, the correspondent, also publishes a card, saying he will make the corrections suggested, denying any intention to wilfully misrepresent him.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

The Correspondence Between Generals Rosecranz and Lee.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburg hGazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 4, 1868.

The following is the Rosecrans-Lee correspondence:

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W.VA.,
August 26, 1868.

GENERAL: Full of solicitude for the future of our country, I come with my heart in my hand to learn the condition, wishes and intentions of the people of the Southern States, especially to ascertain the sentiments of those brave, energetic and self-sacrificing men, who, after sustaining the Confederacy for four years, laid down their arms and swore allegiance to the government of the United States, whose trusted and beloved leader you have been. I see that interpreting States rights to conflict with national unity has produced a violent reaction against them, which is drifting us towards consolidation, and also that so great a country, as ours even now is, certainly is to be, must have State governments to attend local duties or go further and fare worse. It is plain to us at the west and north that the continuance of semi-anarchy, such as has existed for the last three years in ten States of our Union, largely increases the danger of concentration, swells our national expenditures, diminishes our production and our revenue, inspires doubts of our political and financial stability, depreciates the value of our national bonds and currency, and places the credit of the richest below that of the poorest nation in Christendom. We know that our currency must be depreciated so long as our bonds are below par, and that therefore the vast business and commerce of our country must suffer the terrible evil of a fluctuation standard of value, until we can remedy the evils in the condition of things at the South. We also see other mischief quite possible, if not probable, to arise, such as a failure of crops, a local insurrection, and many other unforseen contingencies, which may still more depreciate our credit and currency, provided discontent and disorder among our people, and bring demagoguical agitation, revolution, repudiation and a thousand unnamed evils and villainies on us. We know that the interests of the people of the South are for law and order, and they must share our fate of good and ill. I believe every one I know, who reflects, believes that if the people of the Southern States could be at peace, and their energy and good will heartily applied to repair the wastes of war, reorganize their business, set the freedmen peacefully, prosperously and contentedly at work, invite capital, enterprise and labor from elsewhere to come freely among them, they would soon rebuild their ruined fortunes, multiply many fold the value of their lands, establish public confidence in our political stability, bring our Government bonds to a premium, our currency to a gold standard and assure for themselves and the whole nation a most happy and prosperous future. Seeing this, and how all just interests concur in the work, I ask the officers and soldiers who fought for the Union, ask every thinking man of the Great West and North, ask why it cannot be done? We are told by those who have controlled the Government for the last four years that the people of the South will not do it—that if ever done at all it must be done by the poor, simple, uneducated, landless freedmen and the few whites who, against the public opinion and sentiment of the intelligent white people, are willing to attempt to lead and make their living off of their ignorant inexperienced colored people — mostly men who must be needy adventurers or without any of those attributes on which reliance for good guidance and government can be placed. We are told that this kind of government must be continued at the South until six or eight millions of intelligent, energetic white people give into it or move out of the country. Now I think, the Union army thinks, and the people of the North and West, I dare say, believe there must be, or there ought to be, a shorter, surer way to get a good government for all at the South. We know that they who organized and sustained the Southern Confederacy for four years against gigantic efforts, ought to be able to give peace, law, order and protection to the whole people of the South. They have the interest and the power to employ, protect, educate and elevate the poor freedmen and restore themselves and our country to all the blessings of which I have just spoken. The question we want answered is, Are they willing to do it? I came down to find what the people of the South think of this, and to ask you what the officers and soldiers who served in the Confederate army, the leading people who sustained it, think of these things. I come to ask more. I want to ask you, in whose purity and patriotism I here express unqualified confidence, and as many good men as you can conveniently consult, to say what you think of it, and also what you are willing to do about it. I want a written expression of your views, that can be followed by a concurrence of action. I want to know if you, and the other gentlemen who will join in the expression, are willing to pledge the people of the South to a chivalrous and magnanimous devotion to restoring peace and prosperity to our common country. I want to carry that pledge high above the level of party politics to the late officers and soldiers of the Union army and the people of the North and West, and to ask them to consider it and to take the necessary action, confident that it will meet with a response so generous and confiding that we shall see in its sunshine the rainbow of peace in our political sky, now black with clouds and impending storm. I know you are a representative man in reverence and regard for the Union, the Constitution and the welfare of the country, and that what you would say would be endorsed by nine-tenths of the whole people of the South; but I should like to have the signatures of all the representative Southern men here who concur in your views, and expressions of their concurrence from the principal officers and representative men throughout the South, when they can be procured. This concurrence of opinion, all tending to peace, order and stability, will assure our Union soldiers and business men who want substantial and solid peace, and cause them to rise above the level of party politics, and take such steps to meet you as will insure a lasting peace, with all its countless blessings.

Very truly, your Friend,
[Signeb] W. S. ROSECRANS.

To Gen. R. E. Lee, White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia.

White Sulphur Springs, West Va., August 26.—GENERAL: I have had the honor to receive your letter of this date, and in accordance with your suggestion I have conferred with a number of gentlemen from the South, in whose judgment I have confidence and who are acquainted with the public sentiment of their respective States. They have kindly consented to unite with me in replying to your communication and their names will be found with my own appended to this answer. With this explanation we proceed to give to you a candid statement of what we believe to be the sentiment of the Southern people in regard to the subject to which you refer. Whatever opinion may have prevailed with the past in regard to African slavery, or the right of a State to secede from the Union, we believe that we express the almost unanimous judgment of the Southern people when we declare that they consider that the questions were decided by the war, and that it is their intention in good faith to abide by that decision. At the close of the war the Southern people laid down their arms and sought to resume their former relations with the United States government. Through their State Conventions they abolished slavery and annulled their ordinances of secession, and they returned to their peaceful pursuits with a sincere purpose to fill all their duties, under the Constitution of the United States, which they had sworn to support. If their action in these particulars had been met in a spirit of frankness and cordiality, we believe that old irritations would have passed away and the wounds inflicted by the war would have been in a great measure healed. As far as we are advised the people of the South entertain no unfriendly feelings toward the Government of the United States, but they complain that their rights under the Constitution are withheld from them in the administration thereof. Their idea that the Southern people are hostile to the negroes, and would oppress them if it were in their power to do so, is entirely unfounded. They have grown up in our midst, and we have been accustomed from childhood to look upon them with kindness. The change in the relations of the two races has brought no change in our feelings toward them. They still constitute the importont part of our laboring population. Without their labor the lands of the South would be comparatively unproductive. Without the employment which Southern agriculture affords they would be destitute of the means of subsistence and become paupers, dependent on public bounty. Self interest, even if there were no higher motives, would therefore prompt the whites of the South to extend to the negroes care and protection. The important fact that the two races are, under existing circumstances, necessary to each other, is gradually becoming apparent to both, and we believe that but for the influences exerted to stir up the passions of the negroes the relations of the two races would soon adjust themselves on a basis of mutual kindness and advantage. It is true that the people of the South, together with the people of the North and West, are, for obvious reasons, opposed to any system of laws which would place the political power of the country in the hands of the negro race; but this opposition springs from no feeling of enmity, but from a deep seated conviction that at present negroes have not the intelligence or other qualifications which are necessary to make them safe depositories of political power. They would inevitably become the victims of demagogues, who, for selfish purposes, would mislead them to the serious injury of the public. The great want of the South is peace. The people earestly desire tranquility and the restoration of the Union. They deprecate disorder and excitement as the most serious obstacle to their prosperity. They ask a restoration of their rights under the Constitution. They desire relief from oppressive misrule. Above all they would appeal to their countrymen for the re-establishment in the Southern States of that which has justly been regarded as the birthright of every American, the right of self-government. Establish this on a firm basis, and we can safely promise, on behalf of the Southern people, that they will faithfully obey the Constitution and laws of the United States, treat the negro with kindness and humanity, and fulfill every duty incumbent on peaceful cititizens loyal to the Constitution of their country. We believe the above contains a succinct reply to the general topics embraced in your letter, and we venture to say, on behalf of the Southern people, and of the officers and soldiers of the late Confederate army, that they will concur in all the sentiments which we have expressed. Appreciating the patriotic motives which have prompted your letter, and reciprocating your expressions of kind regard, we have the honor to be, Very respectfully and truly,

A Telegraph Discovery—Remarkable, if True.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept 4.—The Herald to-day has a long communication from Tonawanda, relative to an alleged discovery by a Mr. J. H. Mower of a new method of electrical sub-aqueous communication, by which he claims to have carried on a telegraphic conversation from a point in Toronto, Canada West, and Sandy Creek, Oswego, N. Y., a distance of one hundred and thirty miles, through the waters of Lake Ontario, without cable or other conductors, using the water alone as a conducting medium. The process is not described, but it is stated the discoverer is now patenting his discovery and is confident of being able to work the longest sub-aqueous circuit without difficulty, and proposes to establish communication by this process between Montauk point and the coast of Spain within three months, and claims it can be done at an expense of only ten thousand dollars. Electricians and telegraphers here express incredulity in regard to the correctness of the statements.

A dispatch from Omaha reports that a large force of Cheyenne Indians is moving north, intending to strike the Pacific Railroad between North Platte and Julesburg. Gen. Augur's troops will endeavor to intercept them.

THE SITUATION IN ALABAMA.

The annexed letter was written by a Northern gentleman, who is a clergyman by profession and has been prominently identified with seminaries of learning of the higher grade. Cautious in his estimate of men and events, his statements are entitled to the fullest confidence. There are manifest reasons why his identity should not be disclosed:

———, ALA., August 14, 1868.

The political condition of the State is anything but satisfactory. The spirit of rebellion is rampant, and is more bold, outspoken, defiant and bitter than in 1861. No man not on the ground can conceive the cruel, revengeful conduct of these men and their hatred to the Government of the United States. The pulpit, the rostrum and the press unblushingly "breathe out death and slaughter" against the Radical party and the Government, and as the mind no less than the body partakes of the nature of the food upon which it subsists, I ask what can we expect from the public mind that feeds on falsehood, treason and slander? A leading member of the M. E. Church South said to me the other day: "I thirst for the blood of the infernal nigger party, and nothing but blood will satisfy me," and in the same conversation he said: "If I had the power, I would send this nigger Government to h—l, and establish in its stead a monarchy." Lindsley, the editor of the Florence Journal, Capt. Coffee and other prominent men of the vicinity talk in the same way, and advocate earnestly a monarchy.

Last summer when my house burned to the ground with nearly all I possessed, the neighbors, though present in crowds, refused to lift a finger to help put out the fire, and said it was nothing but a nest of d—d nigger teachers and preachers, and they regretted only that they were not all in the fire. These are but a few instances, but are fair specimens of the rebel spirit which is prevalent here. Our families are insulted in the streets and ostracised in business as well as in society.

It now seems to me that unless some, as yet unseen, influence is created, there will be a collision. The thought is in every man's mind, is discussed in every circle, and all parties are arming. Ku Klux Klans are perfectly organized, well officered, and thoroughly drilled, composed of desperate men, and in Alabama not less than 70,000 strong. I have ever reason to know that the design is to drive every Union man from the State, and I am confident that if the Union men, white and black, are driven out, they will leave the State "an ash heap soaked in blood."

Our Legislature passed a bill authorizing the General Assembly to appoint the eight electors for the State of Alabama. The bill was vetoed by the Governor; a resolution to pass it over the veto was laid on the table.

The Legislature refused (or neglected) to pass a Registration Law, that the State can be purged of the four classes excluded by the Constitution of the State, and the Attorney General of the State gave a legal decision before the State Executive Committee yesterday, in my hearing, that "no election can be held without a registration, and any attempt to hold an election by the rebels would be revolutionary and a sufficient cause for the Governor of the State to suppress." The rebels mean to carry the State for Seymour and Blair or produce war. The Republicans can elect the eight electors by the Legislature, or defeat the election. One or the other they will do. Our Treasury is empty, crops for three years almost a failure, this year not exceeding half a crop of all the staples, railroad cars running nearly empty of passengers and freight, steamers rotting at anchor, every article of comfort or use, from a cambric needle to a steam engine, imported from the North, and a perfect paralysis in business. Land, which before the war was worth fifty dollars an acre, now sells at ten, and every other class of property at the same discount; yet with all this light before them they persist in their murderous work. They seem to me like bats and owls, they see the least when there is the most light. The Rebel leaders boast that the election of Seymour and Blair is the recovery of the "lost cause," and the success of the Democratic party is "repudiation and the restoration of slavery." Hence this vast organization of the K. K. K.'s. It is the organization of the Rebel army and means blood, deny it as they do all over the North, apologize as they may, they are seen in uniform in every part of the State, and the danger has become so great to Union men in all parts of the South that they dare not sleep at night in their own houses.

The colored people are purchasing land andstock, building cabins and trying to make themselves comfortable. They are more industrious, frugal and virtuous this year than in any previous year of their history. All acknowledge that as far as the school master and missionary have gone, the colored race has improved vastly in all those qualities that elevate humanity. You may travel through the plantations in the interior and find that in every cabin, at noon and night, they all take their books and improve every spare hour in study, and they help each other; and in this way all are learning to read.

The colored voters will vote nearly solid for Grant and Colfax, and they say if they cannot vote, if the Legislature will do it, it is all the same.

DURING the remainder of this century there will be only one annual eclipse in our Atlantic States, viz: that of September 29, 1875, soon after sunrise, which will be annular at Boston, in Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine; the duration of the ring, where central in these States, will be from three to four minutes. On March 25, 1876, there will be a central eclipse near noon in Vancouver's Island, in which the diameter of the sun and the augmented diameter of the moon will be almost exactly the same. This eclipse will not, we believe, be quite central in any part of the United States. In the Pacific States (Northern California and Montana), there will be an annular eclipse of the sun on March 16, 1885; the third return of that of February 12, 1831, which was annular in the Southeast part of Massachusetts, where it was carefully observed.

"VOX POPULI, VOX DEI."

He who gave Israel Jesse's son
Gave this fair land our Washington,
And now another hath he given—
Great Grant—the ben son of Heaven!
Let foes of freedom fear the sword
Born by the chosen of the Lord;
His strong right arm hath proven our shield
On many a blood ensanguined field,
And now the nation's grateful voice
Proclaims the glorious chief its choice;
Points to his banner, stained with blood,
On many a well-fought field and flood,
And calls him to the proudest throne
Of mightiest empire earth hath known.
Justly she calls and well she knows
He'll prove contempt on all her foes.
As Israel heard his Heaven-taught seers,
That prophet voice the nation hears,
And echoes back to Heaven the cry,
God! Grant! Colfax! and victory.

FASHIONS FOR SEPTEMBER.

Fall and What it will Bring in the Way of New Costumes—The Panier and the Grecian Bend, Etc.

NEW YORK, August, 1868.

COUNTRY PARTIES AND PICNICS.

This month, above all others, is the one for country visits and the enjoyment of unadulterated country pleasures. It is the month of rarest and richest fruits, of choicest vegetables, and, whatever may be said to the contrary, the pleasure of change is not at all lessened by participation in the profuse bounties of the well-stocked American table in the month of September. The picnic is one of the occasions upon which an American housewife shines; she knows by experience the unbounded appetites which raptures at the sight of hill and waterfall are apt to produce, and makes her preparations accordingly. To render the arrangements for a picnic as perfect as possible, it is best to get some thorough housekeeper to superintend them, to either order what is required or to notify each person contributing what they can most profitably bring. Little picnic cases, in addition to the straw lunch basket, are among the seasonable novelties, The cases are no larger than the case of an opera glass, and are sometimes in the form of a chatelain. They contain a silver cup, a knife and fork, a spoon, a place for a napkin, and the more costly ones a small spy glass. They are very convenient and save much trouble, but unfortunately it is never known how many of the guests will be likely to possess them, and so the usual number of knives, forks, spoons, &c., require to be provided. A gentleman (a batchelor) won golden opinions recently for the success of an out door party which he planned as a complimentary close to the ladies and families who had contributed to his country entertainment. The viands, of course, were ordered, not contributed, and consisted of almost every known delicacy that could be procured and eaten cold. The excursion was to the banks of a lovely lake, and the magic of a gorgeous entertainment with young girls in a uniform of white with colored ribbons for attendants, was presented to the delighted eyes of the guests on their return from a sail across its clear and graceful waters. There was no lack of salt, or napkins, or bread, or spoons, or any of the usual contre temps, such as spilling the pepper over the pie, that generally occur to a picnic party. The entertainment, if it could be criticised, might have been pronounced too faultless. It was almost equal to Delmonico's. Of course, if it had been a woman affair, it would have been less perfect. Women have not so much maney, and use their own hands and their own ingenuity instead; but it would probably have been more enjoyable; it would have been made up of chef d' œuvres in cookery of the whole neighborhood, and this one's chicken-pie, and that one's sandwiches, and the other's cake, salad or biscuit, would have been the theme of wonder and admiration. The pic-nic dresses are the prettiest this season that have ever been seen; one we remember in the striped cambric lilac and white, the stripes of the petticoat wider than that of the pelisse, which opened part of the way down the front, disclosing a little of the under waist, and a broad sailor collar in the wide stripe, turned back from the throat, and tied with simple knotted green neck-tie; the shade of the ribbon round the little sailor hat of white chip. Another costume was of buff linen, with a petticoat striped in wood color and white, and a third of white leno, made en paniers and trimmed with a wide sash of scarlet silk.

NEW FALL COSTUMES.

White dresses, whether for day or evening, were never more fashionable than now. Some very pretty new suits ordered for early fall visiting at country houses are made of white mohair, with buff epaulettes and revers of colored satin. A flat ruffle cut on the cross and bound with the color finishes the bottom of the skirt. Accompanying these were some very handsome dresses in narrow striped, checked, and changeable silks which could be worn upon almost any occasion. These dresses were short and divided at the back into immense lengthwise puffings, which spread out fan-shaped towards the bottom over petticoats made in silk of the contrasting color and trimmed with flat ruches, three narrow frills or one wide one. The front breadths are perfectly plain, the bodies high and trimmed square and low, the sleeves long and ornamented with three straight puffs, ruches or frills matching the color and style of petticoat. These dresses are very stylish in effect, but only suitable for somewhat tall and slender women, the petticoat and paniers reducing in appearance the height of figure. Short dresses of any kind, it must be remembered, are no longer made to reach the top of the gaiter boots, but sufficient long to just "clear the ground." This was the length of the petticoats belonging to the dresses we have just described. Shot or changeable silks will be very fashionable for fall wear, and are richly trimmed with a fringe made in the two prominent colors of the silk-headed with a braid or twisted piping made of satin in the same colors. In dark rich shades chameleon silks harmonize admirably with the tints of an India shawl for visiting toilette. The bonnet to wear with it is a small high chapeau of Italian straw trimmed with velvet, black lace and a plume of short curled ostrich feathers in two colors. This reminds me that feathers also are to be revived this season, the graceful willow feather and the long ostrich plumes the most distinguished of all ornaments.

SMALL BONNETS.

There is a strong, perhaps it would be too much to say determined efforts in progress to abolish the small bonnets and introduce larger ones, but at present it does not seem likely to succeed. The chignons are larger than ever, and the latest style of bonnets very small and worn very high. The fulness given to the dresses behind compels the adoption of a somewhat larger hooped skirt than has been worn for some time, but it can never reach the exaggerated dimensions again that have made them ridiculous in times past. Within two years they have been worn in all sizes from one yard and three-quaters at the base to three yards and a half around, and no recognized standard having obtained, the demand has varied with every floating rumor of fashion and every whim of the moment until dealers neither know what to buy nor ladies what to wear.

The new style issued for the present and the coming season will, it is believed, remedy the difficulty. The golden mean seems to have been found at last, and the shape is so adjusted by the leading manufacturers that the front of the skirt remains flat, while a graceful sweep and tendency to expansion is given to the back. The lowest authorized size for ordinary wear is two and a half yards round at the base; this is very moderate and suited to walking dresses; the next size is two and three-quarters around, the third three yards, this is not too large for a very tall lady for street wear. These sizes may be considered standard, a very short person requiring a still smaller and shorter hooped skirt than the two and a half yards, should inquire for the largest misses' size.

THE PANIERS AND THE GRECIAN BEND.

But what of the latest atrocity in fashion, the abominable paniers? The only place, as yet, where these have flourished undisguised and without restraint, is Saratoga. Are they to reappear, in all their hideous deformity, during the coming fashionable season, in New York? If women were really the mere puppets which society endeavors to make them, we should have no objections to see them rendered deformed, grotesque, or ridiculous, any more than we should to witness the vagaries of Punch and Judy show. But to see real women, women of flesh and blood and heart and brains, lend themselves to such aping of horrible deformity is worse than saddening; it makes one fear for them. A dreadful retribution—unnaturally born children, for instance—a nation in the future of wretched, humpback and crooked monsters. We have no disposition to speak of the machinery by which the shameful apparent excrescence is produced. There are "panier" hoop skirts complete in themrelves, but as a general rule the panier bustle is detached and can be worn or removed at pleasure. Of course the form of the panier must be perfected underneath the dress and other skirts, or the fulness in mere textile fabrics would collapse and the stylish bump be entirely lost. A more fitting compliment to the donkey panier could not be found than the "Grecian Bend," or the "colic stoop," as it is more popularly called, and the mincing step now affected by young ladies. Such absolute silliness is not worth talking seriously about, and should not be considered as reflecting discredit upon women generally, any more than the drawl of the dandy should serve as conclusive evidence that the male sex are destitute of brains. Still, we must confess that we never see the fashionable hump and bend and step without wishing that we could avail ourselves of an old-fashioned privilege and give the exhibitor of these doubtful airs and graces a good spanking. There are addle-headed young men, generally very young men, who, if it were fashionable for ladies to wear steeples on their heads, would delightedly follow in the train of the tallest steeple; but do not think from this that men admire absurdities in women. There is not a man, with the smallest grain of common sense, who does not laugh at affectations and falsities and set them down to general weakness and silliness on the part of the whole female sex.

CLOAKS AND SACQUES.

The cloaks for fall wear are longer and will generally be tight-fitting or at least half-fitting—the pelisse crossing in front and open with reves at the throat will be a favorite style. Cloaks with caps will also be largely worn.

The short loose sacque is abandoned entirely to negligé. It is frequently made, however, in waterproof suits, which require to be as plain and simple as possible, as they are intended mainly for stormy weather.

Street suits will undoubtedly continue to be worn all winter and can be made abundantly warm by lining the sacque or coat with flannel and adding a round cloak of Tartan cloth as occasion may require. The cloaks with "Colleen Bawn" capes, the rosettes made in silk the colors of the plaid, would be very stylish.

COMING EVENTS.

The "Colleen Bawn" cape and the Backelik mantle are among the latest and most stylish garments for early fall wear. Neither are new, but they have not yet been worn enough to become common and though not adapted (except for very young ladies) for ceremonious toilettes are pretty and convenient for early fall suits or morning promenade wear.

The "Colleen Bawn" cape differs from the old Colleen Bawn in being smaller and in having ends square or pointed, which pass down under the belt in front. Its points of resemblance are in being round at the back and looped up in the centre with a rosette.

The Backelik mantle is made in cashmere, silk and velvet as well as en suite. It is somewhat deeper than the cape but not so deep as the old-fashioned talma and has a broad box-plait in the back commencing at the top and running down to a point, which is furnished with a handsome tarrel, thus froming a long pointed end.

Sleeves are made smaller at the wrist and approach more nearly to the fashion of the coat sleeves than formerly.

Sashes are bound to be a great feature of dressy winter attire. Ingenuity is exhausted in the efforts to arrange bows and loops and ends and knots in a novel form. Winter sash ribbons which are just making their appearance at the importers are of enormons width and fineness and many of them superbly embroidered. New linen collars are round and deep and consequently ugly, only fit for the neck of a human crane or "ostrich." The "spiked" collars pointed on the shoulders as well as in front, died shortly after they were born, as they ought.

JENNIE JUNE.

THE more personal object of Rosecrans, that entering into his private ambition, is to interest the Rebel officers in the Mexican schemes of his own backers. It is well known that Rosecrans, as a professional mining and military engineer, was confirmed in the Mexican mission through the solicitation of Marshall O. Roberts, George Wilkes, Henry J. Raymond, S. L. M. Barlow and other Mexican speculators in mines and territory. And, denials notwithstanding, his mission to Mexico will probably be signalized by a more active interference in the affairs of that Republic than we have taken since 1848. The old dream of the South was extension southward, and Rosecrans means to grind an ax for Seymour and one for his employers at the same time. He will secure from the entire staff of the Rebellion a campaign document, asserting their acceptance of perpetual peace and union and renewed interest in the progress and extension of our territory. This will enable him to count upon no opposition on this side of the Rio Grande to any work he may start in Mexico, and the idea of the the great party of empire conceived in the restless brain of William H. Seward, will then begin its second chapter and reach for a softer Alaska.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Tribune.

THE aggregate cost of the railways of the United States, as represented by their capitals, is computed to amount to over $1,600,000 or about two thirds of the amount of our whole national debt. Their gross earnings per year, it is stated, will reach about $350,000,000—a greater revenue than the United States Government.

EDUCATIONAL.

THE WESTERN UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA.
Every Parent and Guardian who has a son or ward to educate should know that we have in our city a Chartered Institution, endowed by the State and the generous friends of learning to the amount of $200 000 Preparatory, Commercial, Scientific and Collegiate in character, with a Faculty ten in number, and a course of study equal to that of our best Colleges. The rooms are large and high, and the apparatus and cabinet of a superior kind. The Observatory belonging to it has one of the finest telescopes in the country, is endowed, is in charge of an astronomer of great ability, and is having four new instruments added to it at an expense of $5,000. All the income from endowment and from tuition is expended in supporting the institution. The aim of the Board of Trustees, who are among our most enterprising and benevolent citizens, is to furnish the best advantages to all our youth equal to those enjoyed in any of our cities. The instruction in all the courses of study is thorough, no temporary expedients being resorted to to secure popularity merely. Only Professors of ability and experience are employed.
Catalogues or information may be had by calling at the University Building, corner of ROSS AND DIAMOND STREETS, between 9½ and 11½ A. M. The next term will commence September 1st.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to swell slowly at this point with about thirty-three inches in the channel, according to the Monongahela pier marks, and something over four feet reported at Brunot. This swell, it seems, emanated in the Youghiogheny river, but little rain having fallen at the Upper end of the Monongahela, and according to our latest advices, there is no prospect of a rise in the Allegheny. We had several heavy showers of rain yesterday, and the indications last evening were favorable for more.

The recent rains drew quite a number of steamboatmen to the river all of whom entertained strong hopes of a rise; but, we fear that for the present, at least, they are doomed to disappointment.

Capt. Andy Robinson, Jr., is here looking after the Glasgow, which boat he has taken charge of. Capt Robinson, we may remark, is looking remarkably well, and is in first-rate condition for business.

We regret to learn that the wife of Capt. A. S. Shepard of the Bayard, died very suddenly at the homestead, in Wellsville, Ohio. The disease which terminated her life so suddenly was apoplexy.

The following boats are now at the landing ready to resume business as soon as navigation fairly opens: Bayard, Grey Eagle, Glasgow Armadillo, Kenton, Kate Putman, Messenger and Armenia. We understand that if the river should get up to four feet, the Bayard will lead off in the Parkerburg trade.

Capt. Jesse Dean, of the Messenger, more recently of the Camelia, was in the city yesterday.

—Capt. Andy Robinson left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh, on Wednesday evening, by rail.

—Capt. Anawalt is in Cincinnati superintending repairs now being made on the Wild Duck.

—Mr. G. M. Thrasher, late clerk of the steamer Anna, received an appointment, yesterday, as Internal Revenue Storekeeper for the Sixth Kentucky Congressional District.

—The St. Marys, which has been lying at Shippingsport for some time has been thoroughly repaired and repainted, and will enter the N. O. trade about the 10th inst. Capt. Sweeny will command her.

—Boats experience more trouble at Island No. 39 than at any other between Cairo and Memphis. The Continental grounded at that place and lost considerable time. She was compelled to lighten over the bar.

—The Evansville Journal, of Tuesday, says: Capt. A. Litter, formerly a citizen of Evansville, and well known in maratime and commercial circles, is in the city. He is now residing on his farm up Green River. He reports that the growing tobacco crop is the best grown for many years.

—An exchange very properly remarks: It is no wonder the steamboat business is dull, and the railroads get freights. Half the time a shipper can't get any knowledge of when a boat is going to leave. It is a bad plan to say you are going one day, and then leave a week afterward. If you say you are going to leave to-day, or to-morrow, go; don't deceive shippers and merchants, for you'll lose by the operation in the long run.

—A Cairo dispatch, under date of Wednesday, says: The America passed down well-laden. The Ella Hughes brought 100 rolls leather, 250 pkgs bar iron, 50 tuns metal, for St. Louis; 20 tuns hollow-ware and flour for the South. The local packets had moderate trips for reshipment South. The Belle Memphis, from Memphis for St. Louis, passed up. The river rose 3 inches. The Maggie Hays has at length concluded to load here for St. Louis, taking cement saved from the Tennessee; she will leave to-morrow. Wm. Hamilton, engineer, purchased the naval propeller Tansy, yesterday, at auction, for $450. The United States snagboat, S. H. Long, passed here to-day, bound for the Missouri river; officers and crew in excellent health and spirits.

—The New Orleans papers announce that Capt. T. P. Leathers of the Vicksburg packet Gen. Quitman, has discharged from employment on his steamer all persons not members of the Democratic party, whereupon, a meeting is held at Poit Coupee, and it was stated, that, "Whereas, It has become the settled policy of the Democracy of this State not not to give employment or support of any kind to members of the Radical party;" and resolved that "thanks are due, and are hereby returned to Capt. T. P. Leathers, of the steamer Quitman, for being the first among steamboatmen to take this important step, which is calculated to contribute largely to the success of the Democratic party in this State." We take these particulars from the New Orleans Times of the 20th ult., which comments favorably upon the action taken. A planter writes to the Republican that he paid last year to the General Quitman $6000 freightage on cotton, and in consequence of the discharging of the colored crew because they would not join a Democratic club, he will not ship another pound of freight on her.

THE HON. JOHN COVODE is making a vigorous canvass in his district, and all the indications are that he will secure his reelection by a handsome majority.

THE torch-light procession which followed the monster Republican mass meeting at Indianapolis on the 2d, was made up of fully nine thousand persons, and occupied fifty minutes in passing a fixed point.

> "We are informed daily that we should not tax bonds, because they are chiefly owned by poor people, particularly widows and orphans."—Post.

Good neighbor! be more specific. Name at least one man or journal that has "informed" you that capital invested in the bonds of the government should not be taxed. No dodging, but a square answer.

The Post knows perfectly well that capital invested in bonds is taxed, just as capital employed in farming, manufacturing or trading, is taxed. There is no discrimination in favor of the bond-holder, and none is advocated. The Post unintentionally seeks to deceive and mislead its readers.

MR. McCULLOCH is justly reputed to be a man of more than ordinary quickness and accuracy of perception. A day or two ago he explained why he supports SEYMOUR and BLAIR in preference to GRANT and COLFAX. On the Bond Question he was with the Republicans and against the Democrats; while on the Reconstruction Question he was with the Democrats and against the Republicans. It is plain, therefore, that in his judgment, however important the Bond Question may be in itself, it is altogether subordinate to the Reconstruction Question. What is more, he is not mistaken in reaching this conclusion. The great and overshadowing issue of the canvass is the restoration of the Union on such conditions as shall secure liberty, order and prosperity, for all races, and whether living North or South.

THE IMPORTATION OF IRON AND STEEL from Belgium has doubled during the last six years, and this mainly if not exclusively in consequence of improved processes of manufacture and the superior training of the workmen. What is yet more significant is the fact that of this importation half a million dollars worth goes to Great Britain, whither none was sent six years ago.

In remarking upon the statistics of the Belgian iron trade, Mr. SEPTIMUS LEDWARD, an English writer of experience and authority, sounds the alarm to proprietors of English mills and forges, and to puddlers and rollers, declaring that "it is a pity to see British capital driven abroad to be expended among foreign workmen, while many of our rolling mills are closed and the workmen starving." The accumulation of capital and the development of machinery which gave British manufacturers, in many departments, advantages over all competitors, seems now to be equalled if not surpassed, in both Belgium and France. If this turn of affairs shall give tokens of permanency, the British government and people will throw off the thin disguise of Free Trade which they have deceitfully worn for some years past.

DEMOCRATIC TAXATION.

A recent speech of Judge SCHOFIELD puts the beauties of Democratic financiering, for taxes and revenue, in a very just light. They have so run the Treasury Department for three years that whisky, which should have yielded $80,000,000 per year, or $240,000,000 in all, has returned a total of less than $45,000,000. They believe in free trade, and therefore the customs would yield nothing at all, if they were in power. Instead of collecting the revenues from whisky, tobacco, banks, incomes and a few articles of luxury as now, they would tax everything alike, the rich man's equipage and the bread, the meat, the raiment of the poor, the land of the farmer, the workingman's home, the same as the "bloated" income of the millionaire and the profits of "those infernal banks." They would levy their taxes directly, according to the population of the States, and ultimately their taxes would be "direct" in more senses than one. Under Democratic rule, as foreshadowed in the New York platform, every citizen, the poor and the rich alike, would be personally made acquainted with the Federal tax-gatherer. With these direct taxes, with opened ports and free trade, with our toiling millions underworked by the oppressed peasantry of Europe, our manufacturers crushed, and the old Democratic doctrine of hard money again in the ascendant, that halcyon era which a distinguished Democrat sighed for, the period when a "sheep's head and pluck" would be pay enough for the day's labor of any poor man, would at last be inaugurated for a wretched and improverished land, and a people fatally deluded by the heresies of that most grasping, selfish and soulless of all aristocracies, our modern "Democracy." And what a nice time we should all have in paying our taxes then!

THE OUTLOOK AHEAD.

THE Republicans of Maine expect to increase Gov. CHAMBERLAIN's majority of 11,614 last year to nearly or quite 20,000 for 1868, and will carry all the five Congressmen as before.

Reports from all quarters of Pennsylvania are encouraging. The interest, with which the great issues of the canvass are regarded by all the friends of the Union in this State, has hitherto been manifested rather in their calm but vigilant observation of the efforts of the party of rebellion to obscure those issues and hoodwink the people on collateral questions. But it would have been a great mistake to have imagined that our friends were sleeping, because there were but few external indications of their readiness for the trial. We have drawn the enemy's fire; we have "felt" their lines, centre and wings; we know their strength, in men, guns and position, and we are now ready to move at once on their works. As in former canvasses, so now, September wins the fight in Pennsylvania, and Vermont gives us the word to "go in." The strong point of the opposition tactics is to be in fraudulent naturalizations and colonizations, supported by the lavish expenditures of the Whisky Ring. We have only to foil that game, and we shall whip them out of their boots on a fair poll.

Ohio will be Republican from the Lake to the River. Their majority will range from 25,000 to 40,000 on the State ticket in October, with sixteen of the nineteen members of Congress—a gain of one—and Grant will have at least sixty thousand in November. The signs in that State are so unfavorable to the Rebels, that Mr. PENDLETON telegraphed on Tuesday last to J. A. M'CLERNARD at Chicago, withdrawing his appointments for Illinois, in consequence of "the condition of the canvass in Ohio;" and M'CLERNARD, who claims that his brains furnished GRANT with the plan for the capture of Vicksburg, was foolish enough to make the text of the dispatch public. Mr. PENDLETON thus confesses the situation in his own State to be a desperate one.

The Union men of Indiana propose to swell their majority of 14,202 in '66 to 25,000 in October next. We believe they will do it.

And then will come the grand stampede for GRANT and COLFAX, the Union and Peace, which, in four weeks more, will sweep every Northern State.

MR. G. W. WOODWARD.

The recent unanimous nomination of Mr. GEORGE W. WOODWARD as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the twelfth district, has led to the publication of an old letter of his, addressed to Mr. EBENEZER KINGSBURY, at the date of the writing Speaker of the Senate of this Commonwealth. It is as follows:

> WILKESBARRE, 11 Feb., 1840.
>
> DEAR SIR: Your favor of the 8th is just received. I wish you had told me who are to be the other incumbents of the new criminal court. Is Kidder to be one? I thank you for your suggestion in regard to a Judgeship for me. If the Dauphin district is reduced to Dauphin and Lebanon, I should like it exceedingly, or even as it stands. And if it becomes vacant, I ought to have it, FOR I HAVE SERVED THE GOVERNOR AS LONG, and the PARTY MUCH LONGER, than Judge Parsons (a) and, besides, Johnson promised it to me. I would not go up into Jefferson or Clearfield, for if I give up my present situation, it would be with a view to one more agreeable, (b) and I should not expect to find a more agreeable habitation in that quarter.
>
> My plan for new districts would be this: Northampton and Lehigh, one; Berks and Schuylkill, one; and Dauphin and Lebanon, one. As to another out of Center and Huntingdon, I know nothing; but, if it is wanted there, let Parsons have it. Let Porter go to Northampton, and let me go to Dauphin. I should like to be there in the middle of the State, and I would endeavor to turn THE POSITION to the account of my friends. (c)
>
> But, unless YOU or I was (sic) to derive some benefit from the new arrangement, I should be opposed to any change that would increase the number of Judges or diminish the labor of those now existing. (d) From you I do not disguise the fact that I want a judicial station. If you and Gov. Porter could thus provide for me it would be very acceptable. But, my dear sir, provide for yourself (e). You have another year in the Senate, and I sincerely hope you will secure some position that will be a reward for your long and faithful services. I should like to come out for you for Governor, (f) and if I see a disposition on the part of the public to drop Porter I shall try this idea on the public.
>
> The amount of the matter is that I would take a Judgeship, which would be more agreeable to me than the practice of law in Wyoming; but as I shall neither intrigue or beg for it, I can hardly expect to obtain it. (g) I have heard it suggested to make Luzerne and Columbia a district. This would be a beautiful arrangement for somebody, and if I were to have the district I should, of course, strongly advocate its establishment (h).
>
> Yours, Truly,
> G. W. WOODWARD.

COMMENTS.—The foregoing is a highly characteristic epistle, though it is altogether likely that if Mr. WOOWARD had conceived its publication probable he would not so completely have stripped the veil from the repulsive features of his nature.

(a) This clearly implies that in the estimation of Mr. WOODWARD, services to the Governor and a political party ought first to be considered in selecting persons for judicial stations. Mr. WOODWARD was not then, any more than he is now, overstocked with modesty, and while he did not hesitate to institute a comparison between his own political deservings and those of Mr. PARSONS, he carefully refrained from any comparison of professional qualifications.

(b) Though a Democrat, Mr. WOODWARD had no idea of assuming disagreeable duties. Eager for office, he wanted all the surroundings pleasant and comfortable.

(c.) What "friends" he thus offered in advance to prostitute a judicial position in favor of does not exactly appear. They may have been friends personal or political, for ought we can tell. It does not matter which. A man making such a pledge, (without solicitation, and upon his own motion,) because he thought it would help his attainment of the coveted position, is about the last one in the world who ought to be trusted with the administration of public justice. A judge who should "turn his position to the account of his friends," whether those friends were personal or political, ought not to escape with a lighter punishment than the bastinado.

(d.) If Mr. WOODWARD could "derive some benefit from the new arrangement," he was prepared to advocate it, and this while confessing that the arrangnment was to the disadvantage of the people. It is not often that even a selfish and heartless man thus bluntly puts his own aggrandizement or profit before all considerations of justice and the public interest.

(e.) What Mr. WOODWARD esteemed the foremost thing for himself he was earnest in counselling his friend to do in his own behalf. His injunction was not to "serve the public well and truly in the function you have been designated to exercise," but provide for yourself." To take care of number one appears to be the cardinal virtue among Democratic leaders.

(f.) Is not that deftly put? How delicately he tickles the vanity of his friend under the expectation of being substantially tickled in exchange!

(g.) What an aversion Mr. WOODWARD professes for "intrigues," and what an admiration for frank dealing! Yet he flattered Mr. KINGSBURY with the idea of being made Governor, in part, at least, through his instrumentality. It is easy to see that he carried a different face to Governor PORTER, by whom he was anxious to be raised to the bench. Alas! for an individual who so writes himself down, all the while protesting that he will neither "intrigue nor beg." He would be likely to do whichever of those acts seemed best adapted to answer the end he desired to attain.

(h.) Though more judicial districts were not needed, and consequently against public policy, Mr. WOODWARD would strongly advocate the creation of any district he was likely to get for himself, and this "OF COURSE." Self! Self! Nothing but self! He has, in this respect, realized in his later years the promise of his early manhood.

A SPLIT among the Republicans of New York would be much to be regretted. Yet one JOHN T. HOFFMAN has been taken up by the Democracy as their candidate for Governor who evidently must have been Republican in January last, if not now. In a speech which he then made—and by the by it was before a Democratic Convention—he took the strongest Republican grounds, as follows:

> "We do not propose—I do not, at least—to discuss the question of the National debt. I simply say this to place myself right upon record. I declare the honor, the good faith of the country is pledged, every dollar of the property is pledged, every right arm of labor in the country is pledged, every energy of the country is pledged to the payment of every dollar of the National debt, honestly and fully, not only according to the letter, but according to the spirit of the bond." [Applause.]

THAT uncompromising rebel, ALBERT PIKE, has retired from the editorial charge of the Democratic Avalanche, at Memphis, in supreme disgust at the new Democratic doctrine of negro equality. For the indisputable proof it affords, of the shameful manner in which the Southern Democracy have "gone back" on the old idea of "a white man's government," we annex a portion of his farewell card. He declares, with emphasis, that:

> "We shall not speak upon a stand or platform where a negro sits swelling in the bloom of his majestic self-importance, expecting his speech to be reported in the Avalanche, and he declared an orator superior to many of another color. When a negro speaker is sandwiched between two white ones, to teach white men and white women political truths, it will not be the entertainment to which we have been invited."

DURING the past month the total oil production of the Pennsylvania regions amounted to 379,309 barrels or 12,235 barrels of 43 gallons each per day, an increase of 11,199 barrels over the preceding month. The territory in the neighborhood of Pleasantville still continues to be the centre of attraction to operators, and new developments are almost daily made. There are 381 wells now going down in that region and leases without number have been sold. Efforts are about to be made for the development of the neighborhood of Tionesta where in 1863 several large wells were operated, but owing to the low price of oil were abandoned as non-paying.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The course of Alderman Sheridan, of the Chicago Council, in offering a resolution directing that the Mayor issue a proclamation forbidding any preaching hereafter against Romanism in Chicago, has given just cause for severe strictures by the religious press on the liberty of speech. The cause of this proposed action arose from the fact that Dr. Hatfield, a Methodist Minister, preached two sermons on Romanism, in his own pulpit, a right that any minister ought to enjoy, Protestant or Catholic. The American Churchman, referring to this matter, thinks that if the Councils prosper, they will soon do away with any necessity for that other class of public institutions devoted to the education of weak intellects.

The Evangelist gives quite an interesting array of statistics of the Old and New School Presbyterians, from which it appears that the Churches united would have a membership of four hundred and twenty thousand. Of this, two-fifths would be New School and three-fifths would be Old School. The number of ministers in the united Church would be about forty-one hundred; of whom three-sevenths would be New School and four-sevenths Old School. The number of churches in the united body would be forty-three hundred and twenty-seven; of which nearly two-thirds would be Old School.

The fruits of adversity are strangely illustrated, by the Richmond Religious Herald, a Baptist paper, in the case of a Southern Baptist clergyman who, before the war, failed to receive an adequate support from the churches under his charge, though rich and prosperous. By the war they suffered severely and were reduced to great poverty; but since its close they have, by system and liberality, given him an ample salary, and paid it punctually.

The New York Tablet affirms that the true doctrine of the Catholic Church is that there is no Church without the Pope, and no Pope without the Church. The two are united, and inseparable, forming only one whole. The Pope is the head of the Church, and what he teaches the Church teaches; what he commands the Church commands, and it is through him they learn the faith, and what is his and her authority. If the view of the Tablet is correct, why assemble the great Council in December, 1869?

The statistical report of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the United States, in connection with the General Synod, shows that there are five hundred and seventy ministers and nine hundred and seventy congregations, containing eighty-six thousand one hundred and ninety-eight communicants. During the last ecclesiastical year, twelve thousand six hundred and nineteen communicants were added by confirmation.

The Presbyterian Banner says four young men of the Third Presbyterian Church of this City, will be students of Auburn Theological Seminary, next term. From the same paper we learn the Old School Presbyterian Church at Mansfield, adjoining the city, has been repaired and a new organ just erected at a cost of three thousand dollars. The Church under the labors of Rev. David Hall is prospering.

Rev. W. Morley Punshon, M. A., the distinguished Wesleyan minister, whose reputation as an eloquent lecturer, is worldwide, is to deliver two lectures in this city next month. The arrangements are in charge of Rev. Dr. Nesbit, of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, who is now ready to furnish tickets on call.

Quite a number of church dedications and corner stone layings recently of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the East especially, have taken place on week days instead of the Sabbath. This is right and proper. Let all financial matters usually associated with dedications and the laying of corner stones, as far as possible, be done on a week day, reserving simply the setting apart of the building to the worship of God, for the Sabbath with appropriate services.

A correspondent of the Independent labors to prove that the system of education in Princeton College, and the intellectual vigor in the Princeton Review, are emasculated.

Old John Street Methodist Episcopal Church, New York, is undergoing extensive repairs, together with a thorough renovation. The last Sabbath in October proximo will be the one hundredth anniversary of the dedication of this Church, and hence the first centenary dedication in the history of American Methodism.

The Anniversary of the Sunday School Union of the M. E. Church will be held in Springfield, Massachusetts, October 18th and 19th.

At the recent session of the Allegheny Conference of the African M. E. Zion Church, the appointments for this city and neighborhood are as follows: John Wesley Chapel, Pittsburgh, Dr. N. H. Williams; Mission Church, Allegheny City, A. Cole; Washington, D. B. Matthews; Uniontown, Thomas J. Smith; Salem, Ohio, and contiguous points, John Holliday.

Bishop Clark, President of the Cincinnati M. E. Conference, at its late session in Hamilton, Ohio, stated that Methodism had not prospered proportionately with the growth of inhabitants within the bounds of the Conference, and therefore they were wanting in the aggressive spirit of Methodism.

It is estimated that the value of church property in the United States during the last ten years has increased about eighty-seven millions of dollars, and that during the same period there has been an increase of church accommodations of more than fifty millions.

A Baptist union has been formed in Chicago, consisting of three departments, viz: The Board of Evangelization, the Ministerial Conference and the Laymen's Reunion. The board is to devise ways and means for starting and fostering churches, mission Sunday Schools, and other agencies for the spread of Christianity in that city.

Considerable efforts have been made to stop Sunday cheese making in Ohio without much success. It is generally believed that it was a work of necessity, but it has been demonstrated by a Mr. Wilcox, of Twinsburgh, that by adopting the following plan the loss of milk may be obviated and the Sabbath observed; Saturday's milk is strained into pans and set on the cellar bottom or into cans, and by a crane lowered into wells and kept till four o'clock Monday morning, when it is delivered to the factory and is made up before the regular day's work is commenced. This Monday morning's cheese, from Saturday's milk, is kept by itself and offered for sale with the facts in the case fully stated, but it brings the same price as the other cheese, for it is found to be of as good quality.

MORE ABOUT THE KU-KLUX.

EDITORS GAZETTE: The Chronicle's "W. L." correspondent at Nashville, Tenn., stated that ninety-nine one hundredths of the cases reported of the operations of the Ku-Klux-Klan are "fabrications." Now I chanced to be in Nashville last week, unprejudiced and in search of truth, and I am prepared to prove that ninety-nine one hundredths of the cases reported are true, where one is overdrawn. A correspondent of the New York Times, residing in Knoxville, declared to me that he dare not report the facts as they were, lest his name should be read in one of those terrible "Chambers of Death," and he should fall a victim. If you will send our friends of the Chronicle or any others to me, I will satisfy them of the correctness of these statements, that I had from the lips of men who had suffered, white and colored, and which are so disgusting and horrible as to sicken even a Seymour and Blair man.

These Ku-Kluxs are all for Seymour and Blair. They hurrah for them, carry their banner, are upheld and encouraged by the press in Tennessee supporting Seymour and Blair, and boast that when those two personages are elected, they will have their rights restored, even of domineering over the colored men as slaves. Is it fortunate that the Ku-Klux cannot vote? C. T.

General Grant and the Cotton Traders.

Some of the Democratic papers recently accused General Grant of having in 1862, at the instance and for the profit of his father, given to a Cincinnati firm, Mack & Brothers, a special privilege to trade in cotton. But Mr. Henry Mack, in a recent lawsuit, stated under oath that General Grant refused his firm this special privilege, and that Grant used these words:

"I am always pleased, sir, to render any proper assistance in my power to my friends; but I am a General of the army of the United States Government, and I cannot discriminate between its citizens. I do not know why my father should write asking such a favor. It can have no influence with me. The request is improper, as it would give one advantage over another, and would lead to that demoralization which it is my endeavor to prevent. The attention of the military cannot be diverted from the work in hand, viz: saving the country. You can take out a permit and trade along the river, as others are doing, and I shall be pleased to hear of your success."

That, we hope, will put an end to this slander, which, however, has had but a poor run, for it was difficult to persuade the people that Grant was guilty of corruption. His whole record in the war is that of an honest, patriotic and unselfish soldier.

NATURALIZATION.—An act of Congress passed in 1862 provides that any alien who has enlisted in the army (regular or volunteer,) and been honorably discharged, shall be admitted to citizenship upon his petition, without any previous declaration of his intention to become a citizen.

—The Navy Yard property, which has been occupied by the military authorities since the occupation of Memphis by Federal troops in 1862, has been turned over to that city, to which it originally belonged.

IS YOUR DISEASE RHEUMATISM!

Many persons, supposing they are suffering from this disease, have applied Liniments, Plasters and other Rheumatic Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with its functions are indicated by pain in the back and loins, languor and weakness, difficulty in avoiding and unnatural color of the urine. A Diuretic should at once be resorted to.

PHYSICAL EXHAUSTION.

Worn out with the burning heats of Summer, the human system requires to be reinforced and regenerated at this season. Strength has literally been steaming out of it under a temperature that necessarily produces exhaustion. Fall is the season of remittent and intermittent fevers, and the weak and renovated are always their first victims. Now, therefore, is the time for invigoration. Those who have neglected to tone and regulate the digestive and secretive organs during the months of June and July, can no longer continue to do so without imminent peril to health and life. Commence a course of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS without delay. Of all renovating, strength-sustaining preparations this is the most wholesome and the most potent. It does not unduly excite the most sensitive organization. Its mission is to preserve, regulate and restore. The tonic, anti-bilious and aperient vegetable elements which it contains are associated in the exact proportions necessary to put the whole physique into perfect working order. The purity of all its ingredients is guaranteed. It rouses the languid appetite, gives unwonted energy to the digestion, calms and braces the nerves, and replaces lassitude and depression with energy and cheerfulness; besides being agreeable to the palate and free from all the objections urged against the adulterated stimulants and tonics, of which it is designed to supply the place.

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE EAR.

In observations and notes taken by Dr. KEYSER, of this city, on the various diseases of the ear, he says that nine out of ten cases could be cured in their incipiency if application were made to some responsible and competent aural surgeon. The Doctor quotes from the opinion of Wilde, a well known aural surgeon, who says: "I fear not to reiterate the assertion which I made on several former occasions, that if the disease of the ear were as well studied or understood by the generality of practitioners, and as early attended to as those of the eye, it would be found that they were just as much within the pale of scientific treatment. * * Deafness is so common and so distressing an infirmity, and when of long standing so incurable, that we cannot too strongly urge all medical practitioners to make themselves familiar with the treatment of the diseases of the ear."

The Doctor says that nearly all annoying Discharges, Buzzings and Morbid Growths peculiar to the organ of the hearing, some of which had lingered through a score or two of years, can be cured or ameliorated by proper treatment.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or its General Agents.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, September 4, 1868.

—Money continues abundant in New York at 3 to 4 per cent., and banks and bankers have great difficulty in placing their funds. The amount of loanable capital continues largely in excess of the needs of borrowers on call. Commercial paper is wanted and first-class names pass at 6 to 7 per cent. At the close of business on Wednesday large blocks of money were offered at 3 per cent. without takers.

—The New York Tribune, of Thursday: in referring to Government bonds, says, The investment to-day has been heavier than for three months, and large amounts have been bought by banks and savings institutions. The dealings were fully $5,000,000, and well distributed on the list. Heavy sales were made early in the day to break the market for political effect, but without producing any result except to further increase the present enormous short interest. The Boston and Philadelphia markets are bare of bonds, and the dealers in the latter city are fully two millions short. The amount of bonds already engaged for Frankfort for Saturday's steamer is over one million, all of them of the new issues, and of the amount $800,000 are in 67's, which are now the cheapest bond on the market and the favorite with the German bankers. The large amount of bonds now being taken from the street will have a marked effect upon the dealings in the street, and with the feeling that now obtains, that the public faith will be kept with the public creditors, and that the election of Grant will leave the settlement of the financial question in the same hands that made the debt, will advance our securities both at home and abroad.

The same paper also says: It is no secret that that the managers of that bankrupt concern, the Atlantac and Great Western road are on their way here from London and will endeavor to saddle the concern upon the Erie Railway Company by purchase if possible, put most probably by by leasing them the road. The affairs of the Great Western are in a deplorable condition and its earnings show a continued heavy decline, and it has no look for any improvement. The bondholders are endeavoring to fund the overdue interest and get the property into their posession again, and will recognize the Company, and make the Hon. H. G. Stebbins of this city President, and an endeavor will be made to galvanize the thing into speculative activity. The property is not worth to the Erie Company 50 cents on the dollar of its present ponded debt and stock, and any trade made for the property of anything above that rate would be a loosing one for the road to add to its already over-abundant stock and lease.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, September 4, 1868.

The general markets are quiet but steady, with a slightly improved demand for some articles in consequence of a temporary scarcity; we can report an increased volume of business, in the aggregate. The weather continues wet and unfavorable for out-door operations, though it is greatly needed; new sown grain wanted rain badly, and a resumption of navigation is anxiously looked for, and would help business here very much.

APPLES—In good supply and dull but unchanged, ranging from $2 to $3,50 per bbl, as to quality.

POTATOES—The receipts are increasing, but, as yet, prices are maintained, $3,50 to $3,75 per bbl. Jersey Sweets, $5,50 to $7 per bbl.

BUTTER—Is in fair demand, and we can report regular sales of prime to choice at 35 to 37c.

EGGS—A shade firmer, under the influence of diminished receipts, and we now quote fresh packed at 18 to 19c.

CHEESE—Is unchanged at 14 to 15c for Western Reserve and Hamburg; 16 to 17 for Factory 18 for Goshen and 19 to 20 for Sweitzer.

MILL FEED—Sale of 1 car Middlings at $2, and another at $2,10. The mills continue to quote at $1 for Screenings; $1,10 for Bran; $1,30 for Shipstuffs, and $2,20 for Middlings.

HAY—Baled and Loose Hay is selling at from $20 to $30, as to quality, and the market is firm, with limited receipts.

LARD OIL—Is firm but unchanged at $1,20 for No. 2, and $1,50 for No. 1.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is in steady demandat 14½c to 14¼c for Shoulders; 16½ to 16¾c for Ribbed, and 18½c to 18¾ for Clear Sides, and 22 to 22½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted at 19½ to 20c in tierces; and 21 to 21½, in kegs. Mess Pork $30,50 to $31,50.

GRAIN—Wheat is unchanged at $2,10 to $2,12 for prime Red, and 3 to 5c higher for White. Oats firmer and higher; we heard of 3 car loads having been sold at 65c, so that the store price may now be given at 68 to 70c. Corn is quiet and unchanged; sales of mixed at $1,10 to $1,12, and prime Yellow at $1,15. Sale af 1 car No. 2 Canada Barley at $1,90; prime No. 1 may be quoted strong at $2. Rye is unchanged at $1,40, and but little doing.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is scarce and in demand at $2,25. Sales of Timothy Seed at $3,25 to the trade, and $3,50 in a retail way. Cloverseed is nominal at $7,50 to $8.

SALT—Is dull and nominally unchanged at $1,75 to $1,80 to the trade, and $2, for small lots in store.

PEACHES—Are being sold at from $2,50 to $4 per box, according to quality.

FLOUR—The Flour market is moderately active, there being a fair local demand, but the inquiry for shipment is very light and prices have undergone no quotable change. Spring Wheat at $10 to $10,25 for new, and $10,50 to $10,75 for old. Winter Wheat, $11 to $11,25. The "Pearl" and "City Mills continue to quote at $11,30 for White Wheat, in barrels, and $11, in sacks; Red Wheat at $10,80, in barrels, and $10,50, in sacks. Rye Flour is still quoted at $9,50, for old.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, September 4, 1868.

CRUDE.

The market was rather quiet to-day the sales compared with yesterday being comparatively small, while so far as prices are concerned there is no change. Twelve cents seems to be regarded as the the ruling price for any delivery within the next four months, while from January to July, sellers option, 10 cents is the standard price. We can report 1000 bbls for October and 1000 for November, sellers option, at 12 and 2000 to be delivered between September 15th and October 15th, sellers option, at 12¼. There did not seem to be as much oil offering as on Thursday, and so far as we could discern, the demand was not quite so active and as already noted, prices have undergone no quotable change.

REFINED.

The market for Refined was also rather quiet to-day, but as in the case of Crude, prices remain unchanged. We can report 500 bbls, on spot, at 30¾c; 500 each September and October at 31¾c, and 500 for October, alone, at 31½c. The subject of production is again being agitated considerably, and as on this hinges the future course of the trade, it is a very important matter. The production at Pleasantville is now in dispute, many who are usually well posted contending that it has been considerably over-estimated, while others, equally as well informed, claim that it is yielding all that is claimed for it.

—Since the above was put in type, we can report 500 each October to March at 29½c, and 2,000 bbls Benzole, last half October, seller, at 14c.

LETTER FROM BROOKLYN, N. Y.

The Vermont Election—Its Consequences.

[Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BROOKLYN, September 2d, 1868.

When I came down to the sitting room, this morning, a gentleman guest of the family I am visiting, laid down his paper and prepared to make himself agreeable, by listening to any remarks on the matter which might be in order. To my request that I might not disturb him he replied politely, that it was of no consequence; when I insisted that he should go on reading, he said he had only been looking over the news from Vermont. Think of it! A Union officer who was wounded in the Wilderness, near the close of his three years service, lay months in the hospital, one fully sensible that a defeat at the polls would compel the boys in blue to shoulder their muskets once more or see their Government under the feet of the Confederacy, sitting reading the news of that victory as calmly as Grant received the reports, or issued orders while the tempest of the Wilderness howled around on every side! I was all out of patience with him, as I have always been out of patience with Grant for not saying something; but I suppose that in the general divison of labor, one class of folks always win the victories and another do the talking. As my silent companion, of this morning, contributed something towards this last as well as former victories of freedom, let me help with the talking, as I belong to that division of the army. Let me say to the mothers, and wives, and sisters, whose dear ones lie in Southern graves, "give thanks; give thanks to-day!" Not as the fool dyeth did they lay down their lives! Not in vain did their prayers arise from Southern charnel houses. Not in vain did they endure the knawings of hunger and vermin, and alternate hope and despair. Not in vain did they bear the coward blow and insult and sneer of the savage foe. Not in vain did they sit under the scorching summer sun and shiver in the winter snow, with uncovered heads, and bodies from which thin modicum of rags dropped piecemeal. Not in vain did they inhale the deadly miasma of the filth into which they were purposely thrown, and drink the essence of sewers forced to their lips more persistently than the cup of wormwood to those of the dying Savior. Not in vain did they shriek and rave in the phrenzy of insanity, and die in the anguish of despair. Our prisoners, our outraged, murdered prisoners of war, who stand before the throne and cry, "How, O Lord, Holy and True, dost Thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth."

He is judging. He will avenge. Never again will he permit these blood-stained murderers to rule the land they sought to destroy, or by the crooked ways of diplomacy crush the brave man who has conquered them in open fight. Their days of power are gone forever. They can never again extort their bread from the unpaid toil of the laborer. God's inevitable laws of life will avenge their long violation of them, and the manifold crimes which sprang from their contempt of labor, by leaving them to the lot they have chosen; and the humiliation, and want, and extermination, which lies in the path of all races and classes of men who neglect or refuse to work for life—for life temporal as well as spiritual. There is no continued life without labor; and so far as the Southern people were and are a band of idlers they are doomed to extermination. So far as they were the oppressors of the weak, and murderers of the defenceless, they have placed themselves outside the lines of those who shall "inherit the earth." God is adjudging them to the retributive vengance of ignominy and insignificance.

For years I have trembled lest for the sins of the Republican party—electing Johnson, failing to remove him, taxing loyal men to pay the expenses of the war, while refusing to confiscate the property of rebels for that purpose, and other such compromises with the spirit of darkness—it would be overthrown, our country once more plunged in the terrible vortex to war; but the danger is past. The news from Vermont, surely as the hand-writing on the wall, tells that we shall have peace. Not the peace of a craven surrender to a to a conquered foe, but that peace for which our hero martyrs died—that peace for which I have heard their very lips pray, as Death found them on filthy floors without a pillow which the hand of love might turn. Oh, my brave, brave boys, whose noble souls went out from the mangled bodies I had pillowed on bricks and broken boards, your sacrifice was not in vain. The land you loved and died for will have peace and prosperity in the approving smile of God.

JANE G. SWISSHELM.

Gossip About the Beecher Family.

A correspondent of a Western paper says:

"The other day, riding to Lake Mohopac, I came upon a man with a familiar face. It was about two miles out of Peekskill, near the Hudson. The man was in shirt sleeves, holding a grubbing hoe in his hand, and directing some workmen at putting down draining tiles. He had a sun-burnt skin, with a sanguine expression looking through it, a tolerably corpulent body, and a pair of riding boots upon his legs. This was Henry Ward Beecher, summering on his celebrated Westchester county farm, a place on the top of a high, almost mountain landscape, which was, a few years back, a stony, sterile spot. By work and money, liberally applied, he has made it both valuable and beautiful. His house, for the present, is a small frame cabinet, chiefly piazza, set far up a lane, with a prospect of green field sloping down to the road; and under a large buttonwood tree, if I mistake not, a space before the house, they have held two or three family marriages. Mr. Beecher enjoys life, to all appearances, as much as any living American. He began the study of horticulture and agriculture a good many years ago, when a young preacher at Indianapolis.

"Mr. John Defrees told me the other day, when I was in his library, of Beecher's early advent as a newspaper editor. Defrees then owned the Indianapolis Sta's Journal and Beecher was a young preacher, just come to town with a new wife and not very brilliant temporal prospects. His church had agreed to pay him $1,000 a year, but was unable to raise it promptly, so he eked out a little time by writing and editing a farmers' and gardeners' column in the Journal. This column became, directly, so popular, that Defrees started an agricultural paper and made Beecher the editor of it.

"It was at Indianapolis that Mrs. Stowe visited her brother, and there, it is said, obtained the name and suggestion of Uncle Tom's Cabin, which she derived from a venerable negro, once enslaved, who had a hut near the city dubbed by general consent 'Tom's Cabin.' His religious nature and personal dignity and recollections came aptly into the great prose epic against slavery."

Annual Conference of the Methodist Church.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

THURSDAY, 1½ P. M.—Session opened with religious services by Rev. S. Young. After calling the roll and reading the minutes of the morning session, &c., Rev. J. B. Walker, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Education, presented his annual report and addressed the Conference very eloquently and earnestly on the importance of educating the young men who are candidates for the ministry, and urged the pastors to activity in aiding to gather means to continue the work.

Dr. Mahon, President of Adrian College, added some thoughts upon the subject.

The hour having arrived for the election of a President, Committee on Pastoral Relations and Conference Steward, it was, on motion, resolved that the President for the ensuing year be required to travel the Conference district.

At this stage of the business Rev. J. Gregory was received into this Conference from the Wesleyan Connection, and Rev. James Grant was received from the United Brethren Church.

On motion, (rising vote,) the request of the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church was granted. They are now part of the Pittsburgh Conference.

The election was proceeded with, resulting in the choice of Rev. James Robinson for President for the ensuing year, Dr. Reeves, Rev. E. A. Brindly, Ministers, and J. H. Claney and H. L. Sheppard, Laymen. Committee on Pastoral Relations in connection with the President.

Adjourned with prayer by Dr. Laisly.

Rev. James Robison, President, preached an excellent sermon on Ministerial Education at 7½ p. m.

Our Ministerial Educational Society is doing a good work in preparing young men for the ministry.

FRIDAY, A. M.—Conference opened in the usual manner; services conducted by Rev. W. Evans. Roll called; minutes of yesterday read and approved.

Rev. W. Wallace was elected Conference Steward. A Committee was elected to report on the President's salary.

The following paper was presented by Revs. Clarke and Chapell and passed:

WHEREAS, The American Missionary Association is accomplishing a great and important work in behalf of the four millions of human beings who have so lately been freed from the shackles of slavery and with a zeal and energy perhaps unparalled in the world's history, is endeavoring to relieve not only the bodily sufferings and develop the mental powers of the Southern Freedmen, but by direct religious effort in aiming to impart to their souls truths which will exalt their enjoyments here and point to a home of rest beyond the confines of time; therefore,

Resolved, That as a religious body we take this opportunity of renewing our expression of the high appreciation of the noble work that this society is accomplishing, and while we gratefully recognize the Divine blessing which has rested upon the directors, officers and missionaries of this Association, causing the labors of its agents to prosper, we earnestly pray that it may descend in larger measure upon all their plans, arrangements and efforts so as to crown them with still more abundant success.

And we hereby promise to use our influence in persuading the lovers of a free and vital christianity to contribute toward this philanthropic enterprise that it may be carried on and extended.

A resolution highly recommendatory of the work called "Republican Methodism" was passed by a unanimous vote.

A letter from Wheeling, West Virginia, asking for a missionary and proffering the use of a convenient hall for public worship, with a view of organizing a Methodist Church, was referred to the proper committee.

Rev. E. R. McGregor was introduced to Conference and voted an honorary seat.

The Committee on Pulpit Supplies reported as follows:

Conference adjourned with prayer by Dr. Collier.

THE admirers of the late Edgar A. Poe will remember his whimsical notion of a "catalepsy coffin," with inside cushions for comfort and springs for the moment of waking. A gentleman who does Paris correspondence for one of our cotemporaries announces that an inventive Frenchman has adopted this notion and improved upon it. He has evolved from his internal consciousness a "Respiratory Advertising Apparatus for precipitate inhumations." The precipitately inhumed person, explains the correspondent, maintains a communication with the living by means of a tube fixed over the mouth-piece, the other end projecting from the earth or stone above. "If," to quote the prospectus, "he finds himself uneasy in his position (?), he has only to demand the attention of the guardians of the cemetery, which he can easily do, and his case will be attended to.

REMEDY FOR A BONE FELON.—We have been handed the following remedy for this painful affliction. The gentleman who handed it to us tested its efficiency with success: As soon as the pulsation that indicates the disease is felt, put directly over the spot a fly blister about the size of a five cent piece, and keep it on for six or eight hours, at the expiration of which time, directly under the surface of the blister will be found the felon, easily taken out with the point of a lancet or needle.—Charleston Courier.

It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.

NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.

W. P. HEALD.

[From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.

E. W. ADKINS.

[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

Base Ball.—Don't forget the great game of base ball to come off this afternoon, at three o'clock, at Union Park, between the Olympic Club and the picked nine of the Oil Men.

Aquatic.—A four oared contest between the McKee and Imnsen Boat Clubs of Birmingham will come off this afternoon on the Monongahela course. An exciting race is anticipated.

Washed Away.—Several bridges on the Connellsville railroad, above Dunbar, were washed away by the rain on Thursday. They have been repaired so as to admit the passage of the trains.

Prisoners in Jail Last Month.—During the month of August there were 339 prisoners committed to the county jail. Of this number 135 were committed for trial, and 204 for terms varying in length according to the offense.

Disheartened.—The Democrats are disheartened by the news from Vermont, and can scarcely get men enough together to hold a public meeting, as was shown by the mere handful gathered at the "old battery" last night.

Committed for Murder.—David Tease, the young man who shot Daniel Ross in Robinson township, was finally committed by Alderman McMasters yesterday to answer a charge of murder, the injured man having died from the effect of his wounds.

Breach of the Peace.—Ed. New was arrested yesterday, charged, on oath of Geo. Drew, before Justice Ammon, with having committed a breach of the peace. Drew alleges that New challenged him to go out and fight him. New was held for a hearing.

Picnic To-day.—Our readers will remember that a grand picnic and bazaar for the benefit of the new Catholic Church, at Oakland, takes place to-day at M'Farland's Grove, near East Liberty. A splendid time may be anticipated by those who attend.

Correction.—In our notice yesterday of the fire in Brooks, Ballentine & Co.'s refinery. in Temperanceville, we stated that a large amount of oil had been destroyed. We have since learned from Mr. Brooks that our informant was in error, the loss being very inconsiderable.

Horsemen and cavalrymen are directed to advertisement of "Spurs" in another column. It is to be hoped that the proposition will meet with favor. The advertiser is an ex-officer of Gen. Averill's old 3d Pa. Cavalry, and is anxious to open correspondence with his fellow officers.

Assault and Battery.—John Reicherbaird made information before Justice Ammon, yesterday, charging James Little with assault and battery; and at the same time and place, Fred Reicherbaird made a similar charge against the same defendant. They allege that he beat and abused them. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Extension.—The Postmaster has extended the "free delivery" system along Penn to Butler street, and caused the necessary letter boxes to be put up. Hereafter persons residing adjacent to Boundary street and the old Greensburg Pike can have their letters delivered twice daily to Dr. Large's drug store, by leaving orders at the Postoffice.

Absconding Apprentice.—John Wills, who was an apprentice of Mr. G. Kauffman, a barber in the Fifth ward, absconded a few days since on account of a difficulty with his employer. He was arrested yesterday on a warrant issued by Alderman Taylor, and in a consultation with his employer their differences were settled and the apprentice returned to his place.

Teachers Elected.—The School Directors of Penn township have elected the following teachers for the ensuing term: Unity School, George D. Hunt; Quincy School, Sylvester Stotler; Washington School, Arthur Van Tyne; Laurel Point School, Isaac McMynn; Monroe School, Mary Latham; Adams School, Sarah McClung; Jefferson School, Lizzie Ewer.

Tobacco and Cigars.—At John Megraw's, No. 45 Hand street, you will find the best Cigars and Tobacco to be found in the city. This house is one of the largest in the city and can sell as low, if not lower, than any other house here. Wholesale and retail dealers and country merchants should call at this house, examine the stock and get the prices before purchasing elsewhere. SD

Disorderly Conduct.—Christina Hill made information before Justice Ammon, yesterday, charging Mary Lew with disorderly conduct. She alleges that Mary is in the habit of calling her ugly names and making fun of her every time they meet. Mary was arrested, and after a hearing was fined one dollar and costs, and in default of payment was committed to jail for twenty-four hours.

Sixth Presbyterian Church, Franklin street.—The congregation of the Sixth Presbyterian Church will be pleased to learn the improvements are completed, and Prof. Wilson (the Pastor) will occupy the pulpit on Sabbath morning at 10½ o'clock, and in the evening at 7½ o'clock. Public are cordially invited to attend, and strangers are always welcome and provided with seats.

Suit Instituted.—Bartley T. Campbell, Esq., author of "Almost Lost," a story which regularly appeared in the Leader, and which has attracted wide attention, instituted proceedings in the United States District Court, on Thursday, against the "Wide World," a literary journal of Boston, to recover damages for the unauthorized publication of the story of which he holds the copyright.

Alleged Larceny of a Horse and Buggy.—B. F. Mervey, a livery stable keeper, lodged an information before Alderman M'Masters, yesterday, against David Elkins, of Allegheny city, charging him with the larceny of a horse and buggy valued at $500. Mervey alleges that the turnout was hired of him on Wednesday last by Elkins, who stated that he wished to take a few hours' drive, but has not been heard of since. A warrant was issued.

Masonic Hall.—Logrenia, the great conjuror, will give a series of entertainments at Masonic Hall during the next two weeks, opening on Monday night. The entertainments of this renowned conjurer are of a merited character, consisting of magical illusions, trained canary birds, white mice and a trained Russian cat. In addition to the rich fund of amusement offered by Logrenia, he also proposes to distribute to the audience each evening one hundred ufeful and valuable presents.

Personal.—The Rev. S. F. Crowther, pastor of the Second Methodist Church, Allegheny city, has, unexpectedly to himself and his congregation, received a unanimous call to become the pastor of the First Methodist Church, New Brighton, the Church in which the Pittsburgh Conference is now holding its sessions. Mr. Crowther has been eminently successful in Allegheny, having, during his pasturate of three years, been instrumental in gathering a large congregation and in erecting a fine and commodious house of worship, now almost finished. He will be missed by his church, the School Board of which he is an active member, and by the community of which he has been an ever-ready worker for reform. New Brighton may be congratulated on this accession to her ministry and citizenship.

Boy Killed.—Wm. Riel, aged four years, son of Frank Riel of Birmingham, while amusing himself on Tuesday afternoon in sliding down a bannister in front of his father's house, lost his balance and fell down a distance of twelve feet, his head striking the ground, fracturing the skull and causing death the next day.

False Pretence.—Joseph Miller made information before Justice Ammon, yesterday, charging George M. Grone with obtaining goods under false pretence. He alleges that the accused purchased a wagon from him for which he was to pay the sum of eighty dollars, representing that he had a note on a responsible firm for that amount which he would transfer to the prosecutor. which it is alleged was false and untrue. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Stolen Horse Recovered.—About ten days since a horse valued at three hundred dollars was stolen from a farm near Perrysville, owned by John Dean, of Allegheny. No trace of the animal was discovered until Thursday afternoon, when Mr. John Dean, Jr., happening in Jackman's livery stable, on Penn street, discovered it. It had been left there by a man who said he had purchased it in Westmoreland county. Late in the day the buyer started to hunt up the seller.

Alleged Larceny.

C. F. Finkner, charged before the Mayor on oath of John Dofing for larceny, had a hearing before Alderman Owston, yesterday, and was held to bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at Court, in default of which he was committed to jail. The parties, it appears, boarded at Wm. Penn Hotel, Penn street, Ninth ward, and Tuesday evening Dofing, who had been drinking a large quantity of beer, laid down in the bar room and went to sleep, when it is alleged the accused took his pocket-book, containing fifty dollars. When questioned about the matter next morning he stated that he had taken the pocket-book to keep for Dofing until he got sober.

City Mortality.

Dr. A. G. McCandless, Physician to the Board of Health, reports the following interments in the City of Pittsburgh from August 23 to August 30:

Males........ 19	White...... 33	Total...... 35
Females..... 16	Colored ... 2

DISEASES—Adults: Consumption, 8; Typhoid Fever, 3; Dropsy, 1; Icterus, 1; Mumps, 1; Enteric Fever, 1—15. Children: Cholera Infantum, 9; Pneumonia, 1; Disease of Brain, 3; Convulsions, 2; Disease of Bowels, 1; Marasmus, 1; Encephalitis, 1; Unknown, 1—20.

Of the above there were: Under 1 year, 12; from 1 to 2, 6; 2 to 5, 2; 20 to 30, 5; 30 to 40, 3; 50 to 60, 1; 60 to 70, 4; 70 to 80, 1.

A Meddlesome Woman.

Annie Hopkins made information before Justice Ammon yesterday, charging Peter Bun with assault and battery. It appears that Peter married a daughter of Mrs. Hopkins, and that the mother-in-law is in the habit of visiting Peter's house during his absence and telling his wife stories calculated to distract the harmony of the household. Peter having become tired of this proceeding informed the old lady that she must not come to the house any more. Yesterday morning he came in rather unexpectedly and found the old lady, as usual, in the midst of some big tale about himself, and he rather unceremoniously ejected her from the premises. The Justice, after hearing the case, did not think it a clear case of assault and battery, and accordingly imposed a light fine on the defendant for disorderly conduct.

Bold Robbery.

James Fife, an elderly gentleman from Wilmington, Ohio, was relieved of his pocket book yesterday morning at the Union Depot in the following manner: He had jnst arrived on the western train, intending to take the train going east, on the Pennsylvania Railroad. Being somewhat of an invalid, and having two young ladies in charge, he gratefully accepted the kindly proffered services of a nice young man, who assisted in the exchange from the western to the eastern train. When the ladies, being attended to first, had been seated in the car, and just as Mr. Fife was sitting down, the nice young man, by a sudden and expert movement, passed his hand into the old gentleman's pocket, drew forth his pocket book, and, leaping to the ground and over palings, made his way up Ohara street, at a rapid rate, before his astonished victim or those in the car could make any alarm. The stolen pocket book contained twenty-five dollars in money and a railroad ticket. No trace of the thief could be discovered, and Mr. Fife, deeming it unnecessary to waste time, proceeded on his way eastward.

Another Victim.

Another successful confidence game was played on the western bound train of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway on Wednesday evening. The victim was a farmer going west to buy a farm, and the operators two sharpers, one of whom made his acquaintance at the Union Depot. When the train was near Rochester, and while the farmer was engaged in an interesting chat with his new found friend, sharper No. 2 stepped up and demanded the payment of "that little bill." No. 1 had no ready cash, but offered a $500 check on a Pittsburgh bank, or a $500 bond. No. 2 hadn't the change, whereupon he suggested an arrangement whereby the former exchanged his $500 in greenbacks for the bond and thirty dollars extra for the interest due. A short time after this occurrence the verdant gentleman, being left at his leisure, examined the bond and found it deficient in one important item, that of being redeemable. He returned to the city and will not buy his farm at present. In the meanwhile, affable strangers and nice young men are his especial aversion.

An Abused Wife.

Thursday evening Chief Green received a telegraphic dispatch from Warren, Ohio, signed J. C. Topley, describing a woman who, it was stated, left that town that morning, on her way East, and would pass through this city that evening, and without stating any particulars requested that she would be arrested and detained. The telegram was handed over to officer McCready, who repaired to the Union Depot where he found the woman described, on the train which was about to start East. She was taken in custody and taken to the lock-up. She is a fine looking and remarkably intelligent woman, and tells a plain, straight forward story, which we give in substance: She was raised at Freeport, near Harrisburg. Her parents are in good circumstances. About three years ago she married J. C. Topley. At the time of her marriage she had a considerable amount of money, which she alleges her husband squandered. He induced her to leave her friends and go with him to Warren, Ohio, about a year ago, and after they had been there a short time she was compelled to hire out to do housework to support herself.

Finding that her husband would not support her she resolved to go back to her friends, an arrangement to which he consented, provided she would not tell her father and brothers how she had been treated by him. She refused to promise secrecy, [illegible] tention [illegible] ing packed her clothes and started.

If her statement be true she is really to be pitied and the worthless husband would be severely punished for having her arrested. He has been telegraphed to and unless he can give some other reason for detaining her she will be released.

POLITICAL.

Meetings to be Held This Evening.

Republican meetings will be held this evening, as follows:

Banksville, Union township—Speakers: Gen. J. S. Negley and A. M. Brown, Esq.

Braddock's Fields—Speakers: C. B. M. Smith, Miles Humphreys, and W. T. Haines, Esqs.

Wilkinsburg—Speakers: Gen. William Blakely, J. F. Slagle and P. C. Shannon, Esqs.

Lawrenceville, corner of St. Mary's avenue and Butler streets—Speakers: T. M. Marshall, Gen. J. K. Moorhead and Gen. A. L. Pearson.

Sixteenth ward (Bloomfield) Wigwam—Speakers: J. J. Siebeneck and J. F. Zoller, Esqs., in German, and R. B. Parkinson in English.

Sharpsburg—Speakers: Hon. James L. Graham and Thomas Howard, Esqs.

McKeesport—Speakers: Col. John Glenn and John S. Lambie, Esq.

Meeting in Allegheny—The Sixth Ward Awake—Speeches of Messrs. McKelvey and McCormick.

Pursuant to call, the Republicans of the Sixth ward, Allegheny, assembled in large numbers last evening in front of Hamilton's drug store, corner of Beaver avenue and Locust street, to give expression to their sentiments on the questions of the hour.

At 7½ o'clock, on motion of W. S. Taylor, Esq., the meeting was organized by the appointment of the following list of officers:

President—Wm. Cunningham.

Vice Presidents—S. S. D. Thompson, B. Loughead, W, B. Ross, A. Patterson, B. A. Sampson, C. Pugh.

Secretaries—Reporters of the Republican press.

The President, after thanking the audience for the honor conferred, introduced J. E. McKelvey, Esq., who made an address of some length. Mr. McKelvey argued that notwithstanding all the efforts of the Democratic party to direct the attention of the people from the real main issue, they were unsuccessful in blinding the eyes of an intelligent community to the unquestionable fact that the present contest was simply one between loyalty and disloyalty, a question whether the people who had so freely given of their treasure and sacrificed their all on the altar of their country, were to reap the fruits of the struggle so valiantly maintained, and in which they so gloriously triumphed. The gentleman in an able and eloquent manner handled this question, sustaining his position with facts from the history of the past and present, which fully and clearly substantiated his assertion. The character of the parties who were arrayed against each other—on the one side those who, when the nation was in the throes of a mighty rebellion, and when every effort was needed to preserve it from dissolution, were found in the ranks of its defenders gallantly contending for its salvation, and on the other side those who by act, and voice, and vote had endeavored to embarrass the Government, paralyze its energies and surrender it to red-handed rebels—was sufficient to convince every reflecting man that the present contest was simply a renewal of the old struggle. In closing the gentleman urged upon all the necessity of active work and ceaseless vigilance. When the third of November rolled round, with Grant and Colfax in the chief offices of State, and peace, harmony and prosperity secured throughout the land, the reward would be ample for all the toil, and they could rejoice in the glorious results of their patriotic efforts.

H. H. McCormick., Esq., was the next speaker. Mr. McCormick stated in commencing that as the first speaker had occupied most of the ground, he would confine his remarks to but one question—the question of bonds and greenbacks. The Democracy, with many glittering generalities and sophestries, are continually harping on this subject, trying to make it the main issue, and because the Republican party, looking deeper into the great question at issue, refuse to accord to this the leading place, treating it merely as a side issue, the cry goes up from these valiant champions that Republicans are afraid to consider this question at all. Now this is all a most egregious mistake. Upon no issue before the people, whether it be greenbacks or bonds, or any other thing entering into this campaign, are the Republicans of any section of the land afraid to discuss, and to discuss, not as Democratic teachers are wont to discuss, in slimy sinuosities and subtle, bewildering generalities, but fairly, squarely and directly. The gentleman then proceeded in a masterly manner to handle the bond question, proving clearly by facts and figures that the stand taken by the Republican party on this issue was the only true and just one, and could only be adopted by a nation which prized its integrity or honor. His remarks were listened to with careful attention by the audience, who seemed to fully appreciate and endorse them.

At the conclusion of Mr. McCormick's speech Gen. Bleakley thanked the audience for their good order and attention, and invited all present to meet at the same place on Friday evening, September 11, when other able speakers are expected to be present.

Meeting in Brownstown.

The Republicans of Brownstown held a large and enthusiastic meeting at the corner of Carson and Carroll streets, last evening. A magnificent pole was raised in the afternoon, from which was suspended a large campaign flag, twenty-one feet in length, bearing the name of Grant and Colfax. An excellent brass band and the Brownstown Glee Club furnished delightful music for the occasion.

The meeting was called to order by R. C. Dalzell, who proposed the following list of officers:

President—James S. Atkinson.

Vice Presidents—John Larimer, W. D. West, Wm. Grierson, John Matthews, G. W. Jones, R. S. Alston, Samuel Donnelly, John Early, George Geyer and P. Sheidlemantle.

Secretaries—H. S. Ayers, Morgan Evans and the reporters of the Republican press.

The Chairman not being present, Mr. Dalzell was called upon to preside, and introduced the Brownstown Glee Club. An excellent campaign song was sung, after which Prof. Pope was introduced and favored the audience with the "U. S. Race."

The President then introduced Maj. A. M. Brown, who entertained the meeting for over an hour with an eloquent and forcible argument in favor of Republicanism.

Prof. Pope, assisted by the Glee Club, then sung a compaign song entitled "The New York Convention," which was followed with music by the band.

J. H. Kerr, Esq., was then introduced and delivered an eloquent address. He discussed the reconstruction question in an able manner.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Birmingham Grant and Colfax Club

Met pursuant to call at Eickley's Hall, Denman street, last evening, for the purpose of transacting some matters of business pertaining to the political canvass. D. C. Ripley, Esq., the President, filled the chair, and there was a very full attendance of leading Republicans of the borough, and the meeting was of a most encouraging character. The Finance Committee made an encouraging report, and the Hall Committee reported having secured Eickley's Hall for the campaign. Other reports were made, all of a satisfactory nature.

It was resolved that meetings be held weekly, on Thursday evenings.

Messrs. C. Evans, E. G. Keehan and John Eichley were appointed a committee to procure a transparency and American flag, to be displayed at the headquarters.

Mr. Daniel Wenke was chosen as Assistant Secretary.

After the transaction of some other business, the Club adjourned to meet on next Thursday evening.

Meeting at Mt. Washington.

The Republicans of Mt. Washington held a large and enthusiastic meeting at Republican Headquarters, in that borough, Thursday evening. The meeting was organized by calling Mr. D. B. Furguson to the chair, who, in a brief address, thanked the audience and introduced John Dalzell, Esq., who addressed the meeting at length upon the issues introduced in the contest. After the brass band which had been employed for the occasion had discoursed a patriotic air, the Chairman introduced Major J. T. Slagle, who made a most excellent address, after which the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the entire Republican ticket.

South Fayette Moving.

The Grant and Colfax Club of South Fayette township held a meeting at Federal Springs School House, on Thursday evening. There was large attendance and enthusiasm prevailed. Speeches were made by Gen. J. K. Moorhead, Gen. Wm. Blakely and Col. Russell Errett, and Prof. Pope sung several campaign songs. South Fayette is wide awake and promises to do better in the Republican cause at the October and November elections than ever before.

Our Home Pride.

Yesterday we happened in at the Pittsburgh Female College and were courteously shown through the commodious building by the President of the Faculty, Rev. Dr. I. C. Pershing. Since the close of last session time has been profitably applied in refitting the building throughout, more than three thousand dollars having been expended in a judicious manner in interior improvements and accommodations for the pupils. The walls have been repapered, the ceilings whitened, the wood work throughout painted and grained, and the halls, class rooms and chambers re-carpeted. As it now opens the Pittsburgh Female College can be set down without fear of contradiction as the best furnished and fitted institution for female education in the United States. Scholars are daily arriving from all parts of the country, and from present indications the present term promises to be the most prosperous and successful ever enjoyed. The Faculty has been re-organized with much care, and is now all that can be desired both as to numerical and intellectual strength. Those having daughters to educate should not send them from home, nor would they if the high character and superior appointments of the Pittsburgh Female College were popularly known and appreciated. A visit to the college will satisfy any person capable of forming correct judgment, that the Iron City contains an institution for the education and training of young ladies unequaled by any in the country.

The Imperial Fire Insurance Company of London.

The business public will be delighted to learn that the venerable Imperial Fire Insurance Company of London, England, has opened a branch office in this city, over which our well known fellow citizen, J. Y. McLaughlin, Esq., will preside. This Company, established so far back as 1803, has for more than half a century been regarded as one of the staunchest and most trustworthy corporations of Europe, and the uniform promptness with which it has met its obligations has secured for it a standing and position higher than which none other in the world enjoys. It has a capital of over eight million dollars in gold, and its affairs are managed with unusual ability. Its rates are reasonable and fire risks are taken exclusively, the policies by stipulation to be paid either in gold or currency. No doubt but the enterprise of the company in extending its great benefits here will receive compensating patronage and encouragement from our merchants. Of the integrity and business qualifications of the agent, Mr. J. Y. McLaughlin, we need not speak, as he is so well and favorably known in mercantile circles. He has opened an office at 67 Fourth street, and has already taken many large risks on property and stocks, and if the claims of the company become more thoroughly known to the public, he will monopolize a large share of patronage.

The Fall Session

Of the Apollo Institute and Seminary, No. 80 Fourth street, (Apollo Building,) will open on Monday, at 9 A. M., and pupils are requested to be prompt in their attendance, that they may commence with their classes:

Parents having sons and daughters to educate should examine into the superior claims presented by this home institute. Mr. James M. Macrum, an educator whose ability is universally acknowledged by our leading scholars, is the Principal and his daughter Miss Mary M. Macrum, is Assistant. All the higher as well as elementary branches of studies will be taught and the utmost care will be taken that scholars acquire a solid education, blended with correct moral training. The terms are very reasonable.

We have received from the publishers, Messrs. Croft & Phillips, the reliable and well-known real estate dealers, the September number of the Pittsburgh Real Estate Register, which is copy righted and gratuitously circulated. The firm will hereafter issue it regularly on the first of January, May and September. It contains full descriptions, locations, prices and terms of all the property placed in their hands for sale, consisting of mills, stores, hotels, houses, lots, salt works, coal works, city and suburban property, and should be in the hands of all interested in the purchase or sale of real estate. Messrs. Croft & Phillips are extensively engaged in the real estate business and are the only firm in the city that issues a work of this kind.

McBride and George, 164 Federal street, Allegheny, have on hand one of the largest and best stocks of pure teas, coffees and spices to be found in the two cities, and they are selling at rates which defy competition. They also keep a full stock of family groceries, and are enabled to offer superior inducements to housekeepers and others on account of the large stock of goods and the excellent quality of everything they offer for sale. At no place in either city can a better selection of goods be obtained at more reasonable prices.

W. W. Moorhead, 81 Market street, has just received a full stock of fall trimmings, to which he invites the attention of his many customers and the public generally. The reputation of Mr. Moorhead's establishment is such as to need no word of commendation at our hands, hence it is only necessary to let the people know that he has the goods to create a great rush to 81 Market street, as it is a settled principle that buyers will purchase where they know they can get the best bargains.

A Fashionable wedding took place in this neighborhood a few days ago and the bride, a very beautiful and gifted young lady, received as a wedding present one of Liebler's best trunks. The gift was acceptable especially as it came from the Premium Trunk factory, No. 104 Wood street, where all good trunks and valises come from.

As a regulator of the bowels and speedy annihilator of pain, Dr. Harris' Cramp Cure is unexcelled by anything yet produced in this country. The summer cordial for infants and children is equally efficacious in disease of the bowels, cholic, &c. All druggists sell these medicines.

The Weed "Family Favorite." Has only been in the market since the Spring of 1867. Sales now one hundred and fifty to two hundred per month.

Query—What machine was ever so extensively popularized in so short a pace of time?

Positive Evidence that Deafness Can be Cured.—This is to certify that I had been totally deaf in my left ear for twenty-two years, could not hear thunder, and that Dr. Aborn restored my hearing in one operation, in five minutes time, the first time I have been able to hear out of the left ear for twenty-two years. As I consider this a remarkable cure, I have voluntarily made this statement. JOHN S. RUPLE.

Most Bitters of the present day that are loudly puffed through the newspapers as having great curative properties are vile compounds and base impositions, containing no medicinal virtues whatever, and are really very poor whisky beverages, and, instead of acting as a stimulant and tonic, have a tendency to weaken the stomach by entirely destroying the coating. The public should therefore be very cautious and purchase none but Roback's Stomach Bitters, which have stood the test as a remedial agent for many years, and are really as their name indicates, a stomach bitters and not a beverage. They combine the properties of the best tonic and a stimulant—a laxative, an efficient and anti-bilious agent and the best stomachic known to the world, and when taken in conjunction with Roback's Blood Pills, are the safest and surest preventive against all bilious derangements, thoroughly regulating the whole system and giving tone to the digestive organs.

They are highly recommended as an invigorating tonic to mothers while nursing, increasing the flow of milk, and for convalescents, to restore the prostration which always follows long-continued sickness, they are unsurpassed. No household should consider themselves safe from the ordinary maladies without these invaluable medicines. They can be obtained of any druggist. TTSF

GENUINE
GLYCERINE TOILET SOAP,
MANUFACTURED BY
PETER SQUIRE, 277 Oxford street London.

This Soap has been, by a peculiar process, freed from the excess of alkali almost invariably found even in the purest Soaps, and at the same time it is made to take up a large quantity of Glycerine (40 per cent). It is to this latter substance that it chiefly owes its soothing quality—softening the skin, preserving the complexion, preventing chapping and the unpleasant roughness experienced in cold weather. It is found most useful in alleviating the irritation produced by dryness of the skin. On account of its great purity it recommends itself to all persons that suffer from the use of common Soaps; for delicate skins it is the only Soap that can be tolerated. It is particularly useful for cleansing diseased skins, where the irritation produced by ordinary Soaps causes so much inconvenience. It is the most agreeable Shaving Soap that can be used, leaving the skin soft and comfortable. The Soaps usually sold as Glycerine soaps contain little or no Glycerine. It is only necessary to apply the tongue to the surface and the genuine will be distinguished by the sweet taste. Agent,
